THE celebrated Anna Dickinson case which has been on trial for over a week in the United States court at Scranton before Judge Acheson was continued until Monday, April 8, owing to the serious illness of the wife of one of the jurors. THERE is some talk of running Cleveland for the third time By all means run him. The first time he was elected by fraud, the second time by misleading the people on a false issue that has been the death knell of the nation's industries, the third time would bury him so deep under the indignant votes of his misguided countrymen that he would never be heard of again. By all means make him the standard bearer of Democracy in 1896, and let the people have an opportunity of showing their just appreciation of this consecrated leader of free trade.

GERMANY on April 1st put on her gala day attire to do honor to Bismark, who was 80 years of age at that date. Ever since 1847, or a period of 48 years, he has been an active factor in German politics, and has done more for the advancement of Germany than any other man, although in 1840 he opposed the forming of the German empire. But he afterwards changed his views and aided largely in bringing about a strong government in the central part of Europe that will be a great factor in keeping peace where a weak government would fail May the able statesman live to enjoy many years of life and happiness.

IT is to be hoped that our Republican leaders will stand for honest money, protection and reciprocity The three above mentioned are the bulwarks of Republican success. No government can hope to succeed that has a weak financial system The Republican party has always advocated honest money, and it cannot afford to follow after this wild free-silver craze that has got hold of some of the people of the United States. The Republican party assumed control of the government when the currency in use was of such a character that money made in one State could not be passed in any other State Under Republican management a currency was devised that is good anywhere in the world. The Republican party cannot afford to leave its proud record and go into rainbow chasing after free silver, and make the United States the dumping ground of all the antiquated silver in Europe. Uncle Sam has got accustomed to good currency, do not degrade the good old man by giving him a currency that he cannot use wherever he sees fit to travel.

THE imports thus far for this year have been valued at $14,000,000 more than those for the same period in 1894, yet the revenues are less and the Government is borrowing money. This is the way Tariff Reform acts — Burlington Hawkeye.

Now—the Time to Make Money

Last month I cleared, after paying all expenses, $175.46 the month before, $119 93, and have at the same time attended to my regular business. I believe anyone, anywhere, can do as well, as I have not a particularly good location and no experience. When you have an article that every family wants, it is very easy selling it It seems strange that a good, cheap Dish Washer was never placed on the market. With the Climax, which sells at $5, you can wash and dry the dishes for a family in two minutes, without putting the hands in water, as soon as people see the Washer work, they want one, and that is why so much money can be made so quickly. For full particulars, address the Climax Mfg. Co. Columbus, Ohio. I feel convinced that any lady or gentleman, in any location, can make from $5 to $10 a day, as every family will very soon have a Dish Washer. Try it, and publish your experience for the benefit of others.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Special Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, April 1, 1895.—That Mr. Cleveland is a candidate for renomination is now acknowledged by the shrewdest men in his own party. Senator Gorman, who may be said to be at the head of that class, told a gentleman that Mr. Cleveland's egotism was just as great as ever, notwithstanding the disastrous experience of the last two years, and that he actually believed he could again be elected if nominated on a platform of his own making, so far as it relates to tariff and finance. It is needless to the intelligent reader that Senator Gorman does not believe Mr Cleveland could again be elected upon any platform, nor that he is doing everything he can, and he can do a great deal in the Democratic party, to block the game Mr Cleveland is playing for a renomination. The latest scheme to boom Mr. Cleveland is to have him make a speech at Chicago in the near future, it has not been fully developed yet.

Much uneasiness has been caused in official circles by a report that the Supreme Court will by a vote of 5 to 3 decide the income tax to be unconstitutional More than the usual attention is given this report because of the recent advance leakings of important decisions of the Court.

In view of the probability that the Finance Committee of the Senate may play a very important part in the Fifty-fourth Congress, there is considerable speculation as to who will be its chairman Under the existing organization Senator Voorhees is chairman of that committee, but, although no one knows, it is generally expected that the Senate will be reorganized as soon as it meets. So general is this expectation that the Republicans have been discussing the make up of this committee, and have, informally, of course, arrived at some conclusions. Senator Morrill, of Vt., "the father" of the Senate, would be under the usual rule the next chairman of the Finance committee, but, owing to his age and the third work which is likely to fall to the lot of the head of that committee, he has indicated his desire to wave his rights in favor of Senator Sherman, who was chairman of the committee when he retired from the Senate to become Secretary of the Treasury under President Hayes, and it may be considered as settled that Mr Sherman will be chairman, if any change is made It is probable that the membership of the committee will be increased from eleven to thirteen, and that Senators Cameron, of Pa., and Platt, of Conn., will be members, the former being the choice of the silver men for the place left vacant by the retirement of McPherson, of New Jersey

Verily, times have changed Up to the Cleveland regime it was the habit of nearly every President to walk about the streets of Washington, just as any other citizen in search of a little healthy exercise would do, but the memory of the public is short, and the other day when Mr Cleveland actually walked from the White House to the residence of Secretary Herbert, about four squares away, the local papers made a sensation out of it which shows the deteriorating effect of having a President who shuts himself up surrounded by sentry boxes and detectives and is afraid to venture out among the people

Speaking of changes, one that was very amusing was brought to the attention of the public by an overtruth ful speaker at one of the sessions of the Southern Methodist Conference for the Baltimore district, now sitting in Washington Mr Cleveland sent an invitation to the members of the conference and their families to attend a special reception at the White House and when it was laid before the conference one of its members Rev J S Tongue, of Charleston, W Va., came near to exciting a riot by opposing the acceptance of the invitation and calling attention to the fact that the lady, time this conference met in Washington in 1875 it had refused a similar invitation from President Grant on the ground that the conference wished to keep as free as possible from politics. Notwithstanding Mr Tongue's remarks about the inconsistency of such action he was promptly hooted down and Mr Cleveland's invitation accepted Sensible people, regardless of their politics or their religion, can only laugh at such silly doings on the part of those who assume to be leaders and teachers of their respective congregations

It seems a little queer that the administration should actually be apologizing for the presence of Admiral Meade's fleet in Central American waters at this time It may be true that the presence of the ships is accidental—that is probably the only way this administration can do the right thing but it is timely, in view of the bulldozing attitude of England towards Nicaragua, and instead of feeling disposed to explain or apologize therefor, it might have been supposed that the administration would have been only too glad to have claimed credit for having them there But nobody can tell what this administration will do about anything

DUN'S REPORT.

Signs of improvement are all the more satisfactory because neither accompanied nor apparently produced by a speculative craze Dealings in stocks, cotton and wheat are not diverting all the interest and capital from productive industry and legitimate trade, though these products are all a shade stronger But railroad earnings, bank clearings and industrial indications are more encouraging this week It is a remarkable feature that the lifting this year begins at the bottom, so to speak raw materials are raised before there is any larger demand for their finished products, a thing not often done with success. Hides rose, then leather, and then shoes, cotton rose, and afterwards some cotton goods; coke was advanced and afterwards Bessemer pig. In all these cases it is forecasted that the larger demand for consumption, though yet wanting, must come when it is seen that prices are going up

Higher wages for coke workers have been followed by a formal advance of 10 cents in the price of coke, and now Bessemer pig has risen 35 cents at Pittsburg and 25 at Philadelphia. Beginning at the bottom to lift prices requires exceptional strength, but the Carnegie Frick interest is exceptionally strong So far there is no answering increase in demand or in prices for manufactured products, and on the whole the range is slightly lower than a week ago, angles and common bar having yielded a little. The general belief is that dear materials will kindle more buying of products. As yet it seems impossible to fill the mills with orders, and the struggle of those yet unemployed keeps prices down It is a sign of strength that an eastern mill has secured in competition with British makers who had an advantage of $2 50 in freights, the contract for 12,000 tons rails for a California road, and other contracts for about the same quantity have been placed. But the attempt of the Mahoning bar mills to reduce wages, 50 cents puddling and 13 1-2 cents for finishing, seems likely to result in a strike.

BROOKS LAW AMENDMENT.

HARRISBURG, April 2.—A bill amending the 18th section of the Brooks high license act was introduced by Mr. Stewart of Philadelphia. The bill provides that any hotel, house or room where liquors are sold, offered for sale, drank or given away in violation of law shall be declared as disorderly houses. Violation of the act is made a misdemeanor, subject to a fine of $50 and imprisonment. There is a proviso that the person or persons so offending shall have a knowledge of the illicit sale of vinous, spiritous, malt or brewed liquors, or any mixture thereof, on the premises where he or she has been found.

Decision on Appeal of Annin Township from Auditors Report.

We have been requested by several citizens to publish the opinion of Judge Morrison in the above case, which was handed down on March 23, 1895 and is of considerable importance to taxpayers and supervisors. The township of Annin had appealed from the report of their auditors in settling the accounts of the township supervisors, Edward Crowley and Charles Wandover, for 1893 Numerous specifications of error had been filed to the account by the counsel representing the appellant, to wit Annin township, the exceptions contended for and insisted upon, namely, for credit claimed by said supervisors, for work done with their own teams, hired men in their individual employ, their minor children, and charges made for implements of their own supplied and used on township roads All these exceptions were sustained by the court, particularly on the ground of public policy, and the appellees were held not entitled to recover, and the account is restated, and the supervisors surcharged respectively therewith

For an intelligent conception of the case, and the ruling of the court on the questions raised and decided we append the opinion in full

In the matter of the Appeal of the Township of Annin in the county of McKean from the Auditors' Report upon the Accounts of the Supervisors of said township for the year ending March 1895. } C. P., No. 263, June Term, 1895.

D. L. ERKMAN, Attorney for Appellant.
R. W. SMITH and K. R. MAYO, Attorneys for Appellees.

PER CURIAM.

This appeal was regularly taken and filed in the Court of Common Pleas of McKean county on April 13, 1895, and on August 14 1895 the appellants filed their specifications of errors, claimed to have been committed by the auditors.

Prior to this however on April 17, 1895 a rule to show cause why an issue should not be framed was granted and while this rule was pending the counsel for the respective parties came into Court and abandoned this rule, and agreed to submit their testimony and arguments to T. A. Morrison Judge and have him restate the accounts of the Supervisors and render judgment thereon. In pursuance of this agreement the parties with their counsel appeared in open Court on March 16 1895, and submitted their evidence and arguments and it is upon this submission that we now proceed to dispose of the issues as raised.

The auditors report appealed from found a balance due Edward Crowley, supervisor from the township, of $125 61

And the same Report found a balance due from the township to Charles Wandover for $ 1.25

At the hearing specifications Nos 1, 2 and 3, were withdrawn by the appellant's counsel thus leaving in force only the following items and these open for adjudication. These are a material facts in dispute herein

1. As to Edward Crowley services of himself for the township 29 days at $2 per day, $58.00 also services of himself in township 26½ days at $2 00 per day 53.00
also services of his man as team 25½ days at $2 50 per day $106.25 Also amount paid said man for work on the road for 33 days 66 00

2. As to Charles Wandover account the items in dispute are services of himself for township 13 days $26 00 Also services of himself for township 29 days $58 00 Also charge for the use of his team 51 days $76 50 Also charges if his own and team 58½ days $220.25

We find as a fact that the team work for which these supervisors were credited was done by the teams and minor sons, and justly by the hired men of these supervisors. This raises the question of the right of the supervisors to employ their own teams and hire them out from time to time in the year, and what is reasonable pay for such services. If supervisors be entitled to such charges for their own teams and labor, then it is the duty of the auditors to allow them. We think it is not truly public policy to permit a supervisor to work for the township for the full number of days and teams on the roads and then pay himself out of the public money. Wearing of the papers are entitled to the impartial judgment of all the citizens of the township. The law presumes that every supervisor will do his duty in the premises, and in making his road warrants he will not allow more than is justly due. If there is such fault the law gives the supervisor the right to appeal, and if he will be his fault. We do not think this case is presented in the most favorable manner for the appellees. The road records of the township are kept by the supervisors themselves and no one else, except the last year has been allowed this to be done by the supervisors. The auditors have no power to compel the supervisors to keep their records in any particular manner. While he has the full power to call for such records and papers as he may deem necessary in the settlement of the accounts of the supervisors, and if he finds that the supervisors have failed to keep such records as the law requires, he may disallow the items of the account for which no vouchers are produced. In the case before us the auditors have allowed this to be done by the supervisors and we see no reason why we should not allow the same.

But there is another view of this question which requires us to find that these supervisors are not entitled to recover. The law requires that the supervisors shall meet on the first Monday of March and shall appoint their road masters for the township or such parts of it as they may deem necessary, and shall assign to each road master the district over which he shall have charge and control during the year. The law requires that the supervisors shall meet on the first Monday of March and shall appoint their road masters for the township or such parts of it as they may deem necessary, and shall assign to each road master the district over which he shall have charge and control during the year. The law requires that the supervisors shall meet on the first Monday of March and shall appoint their road masters for the township or such parts of it as they may deem necessary, and shall assign to each road master the district over which he shall have charge and control during the year.

[illegible] Edward Crowley must be surcharged as follows:

Fifty cents per day over charge for twenty days service	$ 10 00
1/3 of team and team 25 days	119 25
25 days work by minor son and hired man	44 00
Total	173 25
Deduct balance due Crowley by auditors report	37 61
Balance due from Edward Crowley to the township of Annin	135 64

Charles Wandover must be surcharged as follows:

Fifty cents per day over charge for 13 days service	$ 7 50
1 man 6 days 2 days	2 50
1 man and team 45 days	220 25
Total	230 25
Deduct balance due Wandover by auditors report	13 25
Balance due from Charles Wandover to the township of Annin	225 00

The foregoing short statement requires us to find that the balance of the appellant against Edward Crowley for the sum of $135 64, with interest from the 1st day of April 1895, and in favor of the appellant against Charles Wandover for the sum of $225 00, and one-half of the costs of this proceeding

From LaGrippe.

How Dr. Miles' Nervine Brought One of Kentucky's Foremost Business Men Back to Health.

NO DISEASE has ever presented so many peculiarities, developed so many aggravating symptoms and baffled so many physicians as LaGrippe. No disease leaves its victims so debilitated, useless, sleepless, nerveless, as LaGrippe. It is a disease of the nerves, it uses up the tissue, the vitality, the life-giving nerve force that feeds the brain.

There is one remedy that will replace this worn-out tissue; that will renew this lost vitality and restore health. Read what Mr. D. W. Hilton, state agent of the Mutual Life Insurance Co., of Kentucky, one of the best known insurance men in the south, and whose portrait appears above, says about how Dr. Miles' Nervine Restored him to he alth when all else had failed.

"In 1889 and '90 I had two severe attacks of LaGrippe, about eight months intervening between them, the last one confining me to my bed for four months and attacking my nervous system, with such severity that my life was despaired of. I had not slept for more than two months except by the use of narcotics that stupefied me, but gave me no rest. For more than eight long weeks I was only conscious of intense mental weakness, agonizing bodily pain and the fact that I was hourly growing weaker.

When in this condition, it reemed like a providential circumstance that I earned of Dr Miles' Restorative Nervine, for in two days after I commenced using it, I began to improve and in one month's time I was virtually cured, and very much to the surprise of everybody who I knew of my condition; for none of them believed I would ever recover. I have since enjoyed excellent health and have recommended your remedies to many of my friends, not one of whom has failed to thank me for doing so, which I have told them again.

But the best remains to be told. Mrs. Hilton had suffered with severe nervous troubles for thirteen years and had been treated by several physicians, who stand high in their profession, without any perceptible improvement. Seeing how the Nervine had so effectually cured me, she commenced using it and is now in excellent health. We never fail to recommend it."

—We are in receipt of a pretty little polka, composed by our old friend, R. M. Johnson, of Galeton, the popular band instructor. He is also the author and publisher of many other pieces, both for the piano and band. Glad to hear from him.

—W. H. Prentis is turning out some excellent work in his line, and as spring is here you will desire to beautify the resting place of your departed loved ones. Give this enterprising gentleman a call, and our word for it, you will be pleased with the result.

—The property of the National Brick and Tile Company, whose works are located at Lewis Run, was sold at Sheriff sale, Monday, at the suit of the Emery Oil Co., Geo. A. Berry and Robt. L. Ballantyne. The property was bid in by L. E. Hamaker.—Era.

—The Marie Tavary Grand Opera Co. will be seen at Wagner opera house, Bradford, Thursday, April 11. Madame Tavary will sing "Faust." The B. R. & K. will run a special train from here that day, returning after the show, to accomodate those wishing to attend.

—As Easter will soon be here, Rockwell, the florist of Bradford, wishes to inform you that he is prepared to fill all orders in the line of cut flowers or greenery that may be desired. All orders promptly filled by mail. He has removed his green house to No. 20 Main street.

—The MINER is in receipt of two very handsome catalogues containing valuable information relative to the latest styles in hats from the well known gents furnishing goods establishment of Ike Simons, of Bradford. He has a reputation of being up to date in all articles in his line.

—Gifford's lower mill was shut down last Saturday on account of a break down. While the carriage was being run back the nigger-head flew up and struck it, breaking the blocks and throwing the setter, his assistant and S. J. Gifford in a promiscuous heap. No one was injured.

—The music store of A. Blake, of Olean, has been moved into new and elegant quarters in the Masonic Temple block on Union street. The increased business has demanded increased facilities. We congratulate the proprietor on this evidence of this successful business career.

—March put on her brightest smiles as she bade us good-bye last Sunday, but conscience smote her, when reminded of the disagreeable weather she had given during the rest of the month, and she shed a copious shower of tears ere she gave us a final good-bye, and April shed tears out of sympathy.

—There is considerable excitement at Prattsburg, in the northern part of Steuben county, over the striking of oil. It is said that there is 200 feet of oil in the well, which is now down 1,500 feet. Indications point to a good oil field in that vicinity. The company has 2,000 acres under lease, and will commence immediately upon another well.—Gazette.

—At St. Luke's church during next week (Holy Week) there will be daily services at 9 a. m. Also additional services for children on Wednesday at 4,15 p. m. and on Good Friday at 4 p. m. The service of the Three Hours from 12 m. to 3 p. m. with meditations on the Seven Sayings from the Cross will be observed as usual on Good Friday of this year.

—A. B. Armstrong commenced Monday making extensive repairs on his drug store. New floor, new ceiling, and an elegant glass front will make the old corner drug store one of the neatest business places in town, and with the genial Leon Hogarth as master of ceremonies and dispenser of health-giving remedies, there is no reason why the new firm should not be a success.

—The Burgess folding gun, manufactured in Buffalo, is one of the handiest guns for police service in the world. The barrel works on a hinge, and when folded up can be carried in a holster, not taking up much more room than an ordinary revolver. The magazine will hold six cartridges loaded with buckshot, and would be an effective weapon to use against train robbers.

—We learn through an exchange that W. P. Pratt, of Cuba, has increased the sale of the H. P. B. cigars to such an extent that a few days ago he took on his force a brand new girl, which our contemporary claims, is causing our friend to "blow" himself when he meets his many friends on the road to such an extent as to cause a heavy run on his pocket book. Well, wait till he arrives in Smethport.

—Bell Bros. have about completed their passenger and freight elevator in their elegant new store, and will in a couple of weeks add furniture to their already extensive store. They have the entire third floor for that purpose. All goods will be taken to the basement and unpacked, and then taken upstairs clean and ready to be placed on sale. Their entire stock has been purchased, and will begin to arrive the first of the week.—Olean Tramp.

—Sid Black, agent for the celebrated Cleveland bicycle, gave an exhibition of his skill on the wheel at the Opera House last Thursday that was truly phenomenal. During the whole performance the audience was kept busy applauding his wonderful exploits. There is no question but that the Cleveland wheel is as near perfect in structure as it is possible to make one. S. E. Bell, of this place, will be the agent for the sale of the wheel, and from what we saw of the tests shown there can be no doubt as to their durability.

—At the meeting of the Republican county committee at the St. James, in Bradford, on Tuesday, twenty-three members of the committee were present. The meeting was called to order by Chairman Clark, who stated that the object of the meeting was for the purpose of fixing the date of holding the county convention, which was finally decided after considerable discussion, to be held on Tuesday June 11 primaries on the Saturday preceding June 8. Short addresses were made by Col. Rogers, Capt. Chapman, Mayor Hawkins and Mr. Andrews, and the meeting adjourned.

—Be careful how you speak of a woman's character. Think how many years she has been building it, of the toils and privations endured, of the wounds received, and let no suspicion follow her actions. The purity of woman is the salvation of the race, the hope of future greatness, the redemption of man. Wipe out her purity and man sinks beneath the wave of despair without a star to guide his life into a channel of safety. Think then, before you speak, and remember that any hog can root up the fairest flower that ever grew, so the vilest man may ruin the purest woman's character.—Ex.

—A wreck on the B. R. & K. R. R. last Tuesday afternoon, near Palen's switch, delayed the Bradford train to Smethport until 9 10 p. m. Eight or ten hungry mortals were kindly cared for by Mrs. Seymour, who furnished us an excellent supper and thus allayed the tedium of an hour's wait. The management of the road, with their usual energy, soon removed the obstruction and we bade adieu to the mountain of coal with no serious regrets. Mr. Rogers, with his usual determination, wanted to walk in to Smethport, but could not get anyone to accompany him but a tramp, whose company he declined with thanks.

—On Friday last Mrs. Keesler and Mrs. Nearing were driving on Mechanic street and as they turned into Main street the horse became frightened and ran away. When near Wells' drug store Mrs. Keesler was thrown out in the road, but not injured. The horse continued to run up Main street, and when in front of the Chautauqua House crowded in towards the curb. When he got to the cross walk, which was up about two feet, he attempted to jump up, but was caught and stopped by Randall McClellan, and Hugh Crow caught Mrs. Nearing in his arms as the buggy was turned over, and she escaped without any injury. It was a very fortunate escape for both ladies.

—At a recent meeting of the New York County Medical Society, a paper was read by Dr. S. B. Powell describing the operation of opening the skull of idiot infant children. The operation consists of taking out a piece of skull from the top of the head, affording the cramped brain an opportunity to grow and develop in cases where its growth has been obstructed by the premature closing of certain soft bones in the head. Dr. Powell afterwards performed two operations on a couple of children, aged about two years, in the presence of a large number of surgeons. The operation is too lengthy for description here, but there is very little doubt of its final success, as both children are doing well. This performance marks a new era in surgery.

—A Smethport correspondent to the Bradford Sunday Herald sent that paper the following official information: "Jos. Holder who sometime since resigned the office of Justice of the Peace for this borough, has been succeeded by virtue of the governor's appointment by Mr. D. L. Knapp, who has for a number of years officiated as court crier for McKean county. The appointment is a first class one and eminently satisfactory to all our citizens. Mr. Knapp is busy at present organizing his court, and while no public announcement has as yet been made regarding the future court officers, I think I violate no confidence and will come very near the mark with the following list: Will Morrison, the present deputy prothonotary, will undoubtedly be clerk of the court; for the judge and his experience in his present office will be invaluable to him in his new position. It is understood that the position of crier and chief up staff has been offered to John Breneman of the Grand Central hotel. Mr. Breneman is taking a course of lessons from Amos Bishop's Instructor of Court Etiquette and if his whiskers arrive in time from the matress factory he will open court the 1st of April. If he refuses to accept the office we understand that it will be offered to County Treasurer Fagnan."

An Eldred Engineer Man Dead.

Frank A. Carter, a prominent business man of Eldred, who has been extensively engaged in the furniture and undertaking business, having suffered with the la grippe for about two weeks, died very suddenly of apoplexy on Saturday afternoon. He had been lying down, and on getting up to do something, he fell back, expiring instantly. The deceased was born June 11, 1850, in the state of Illinois. In our short acquaintance with Mr. Carter we have found him a genial and pleasant companion, upright in his dealings, who was doing an excellent business at Eldred. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon, the remains being placed in the Sartwell cemetery. Mr. Carter, just previous to his demise, had joined the Catholic church. On Monday last Mrs. Carter was lying very low at her home. Hopes are entertained, however, of her recovery.

THE MODERN OYSTER STEW.

The Middle Aged Man Contrasts It With the Stew of Before the War.

"When I was a boy, before the war," said a middle aged man, "the price of an oyster stew in a good ordinary restaurant was 12½ cents. The price has gradually gone up until now, in a good restaurant, an ordinary stew costs 25 cents. In the old restaurant there was a cloth upon the table, but this cloth, unless you happened to find it when it had just been put on, was apt to be free coed with coffee stains. There were catchup and vinegar and so on, some of them perhaps in bottles in a caster Perhaps the waiter gave you a pickle or two. The light was not very bright. The waiter brought the stew in an oyster plate, and as the best broth washed about a little in the plate as he carried it and set it down you were afraid it might burn his thumb. But the oysters were good. Let me pause to remark that the oyster is something to be grateful for.

"Today the table, without a cloth perhaps, is cherry or mahogany, finely polished. For a cloth there is spread before you a napkin of ample dimensions and bright and fresh. The pickle is chopped up celery and very good. You get two kinds of crackers, and plenty of them, and a generous portion of French bread. The butter comes in a sightly little case. The table furniture is all good—dishes, glass, every thing The spread before you is agreeable to the eye and the whole scene is brilliantly lighted with the modern incandescent lamps. The stew comes in an oval dish that rests upon a plate. I don't like to eat out of such a dish so well as I do out of a plate, but you know at least there is no danger burning the waiter's thumb. The oysters are good, the whole arrangement is away beyond the stew of before the war It costs more, but are we not better able to pay for it? For general get up and get and dash and style and comfort the old stew couldn't begin to compare with it. The modern oyster stew is one of many things that we do an everlasting sight better than we did. —New York Sun.

THREE THRILLING TALES.

The Liars' Club Awarded Prizes to Three Short Stories.

After his narrow escape Zeb Vaughan of Pasadena fell on his knees and thanked heaven for a miraculous deliverance from certain death So would any one also who had been grasped in the iron clutch of a 1,400 pound grizzly while ten miles from a gun or a cabin Zeb never lost his presence of mind and began tickling the bear's ear with a feather he had picked up absentmindedly, and the bear began laughing so hard that he could neither close his arms to squeeze nor his mouth to bite. Zeb continued tickling until the bear laughed so hard that he burst a blood vessel and fell down, dying.

A couple of Montana turkeys recently killed had taken into their aristocratic craws to assist in digestion 14 valuable sapphires, several ounces of gold and just enough silver for change It is now fashionable among Montana poultry to have jeweled interiors and it is estimated that the cautious fowls of the new state have within 11 months of 1894 scratched up and swallowed $11,617 57 worth of gems and precious metals.

A girl in Kalamazoo who was not satisfied with squeezing a 26 inch waist into an 18 inch corset of the ordinary construction, devised one of rope yarn ribbed with clothesline Thus arrayed she took a bath, when the wetted and contracting fiber brought the measurement down to 9½ inches. In delight she gasped "Oh haven't I got—a just lovely figure now? And it's—so loose—and comfortable."—New York Advertiser

Potatoes as Pocketbolders.

"It is surprising" says a commercial traveler "how general the use of potatoes as pocketholders is becoming in hotels. I have seen them in use in great hostelries of the east, whose owners wouldn't hesitate for a moment to spend $10 for a desk ornament to hold pens used by the guests in registering The mixture of starch glucose and water in the potato seems well adapted to take up the impurities of ink and to keep the pen point clear and bright, while the alkaloid of the potato known as solanin doubtless has something to do with it in the same line Those elements readily take up the tannate of iron which is the body substance of ink Chemically speaking, starch is the first base of a potato, and sugar or glucose is its second base Thus is the humble potato finding another way in which to serve the uses of mankind"—New York Tribune

A Short Incident.

They were seated for a bridal couple as soon as they entered the dining room, but the waiters were too busy to notice them and all the tables were filled. So they stood just inside the door holding hands

After awhile the head waiter saw them from the other side of the room and beckoned them, being afraid to leave the place that had just been vacated

The newly married man dropped his bride's hand and started across the big dining room as if it had been a skating rink When half way across, he turned and skated back to her

Maria," he said in loud, manly tones don't you stir from here till I get back

Now Pete" she responded, but don't you be gone long

Again he circumnavigated the dining room and returned to Maria, who was about blushing and smiling by the door

Stay right here he urged in a loud whisper if you don't you'll sure get lost I'll come back in a minute, when I see what that fellow wants"

But the waiter came up at that moment and took the two of them in tow and landed them safely in the places he had secured for them —Detroit Free Press.

MASSAGE FOR BLACK EYES.

Better Than Paint and Deception For Obliterating Evidence of Fistic Encounters.

Those who make a business of obliterating evidence of fistic encounters in the shape of black eyes by painting the damaged optics no longer enjoy a monopoly of such business This I was told by a pugilistic acquaintance whose experience entitled him to be regarded as an authority on the subject

"Massage treatment of the region affected," he said, "will beat paint and raw beefsteak all hollow But it should be applied immediately after the injury is received in order to prove thoroughly effectious. It does not require an expert to do it. All that is necessary is to move the fingers rapidly and firmly over the bruised surface and to keep it up until the last vestige of discoloration has disappeared. The explanation is easy Where the blow has been received the blood becomes congested It is the clots of blood showing through the transparent skin that produces the black effect. The pressure of the fingers gradually tosses the clotted blood, which passes off into the general currents of circulation, and fresh and properly colored blood takes its place

"However as a rule, the professional 'prize' does not bother himself about accelerating the disappearance of a black eye. It is a sign which proclaims the fact that his opponent has recently fallen an engagement and as such he is an object of envy to his less fortunate brethren. It is the man about town, whose convivialities occasionally causes him to forget that discretion is the better part of valor, who is apt to profit most by the knowledge it at massage, promptly applied will remove the signs of an outing from an eye that has been in violent contact with some other fellow's fist and thus obviate the necessity of having a story to account for it, which, however ingenious, will be sneered at by all but the credulous acquaintances to some of whom may have been themselves.—New York Herald

Critical Logic Failed

The late Sherlock Holmes had a favorite dictum "Eliminate the impossible and what is left however improbable, must be the truth This was not at all in accordance with the slaying of Van Bibber's train is somewhat astray in its logic What must be always first is the unfortunate Most of us will agree from experience with Holmes rather than with Holmes The impossible has happened When Mrs. Hancock Clark was published to the New York world, the critics were agreed that it was modeled on Hawthorne's style But it is not so Hawthorne's style is not a thing to be imitated Mrs. Clark has a style of her own, and a delightful one it is, full of subtle humor and delicate observation, and the critics went astray when they said that it was like Hawthorne's —Philadelphia Ledger
